

Stanley Motyka

HACKETTSTOWN — Funeral services were held Saturday for Stanley F. Motyka, 61, of 8 Heather Court, Diamond Hill, who died Thursday at Dover General Hospital after a short illness.

Mr. Motyka was born in Newark and was the son of the late Victor J. and Victoria Ochatah Motyka.

He lived at Diamond Hill since 1961.

He was a technical writer employed by Picatinny Arsenal.

He was an army veteran of World War II.

Mr. Motyka is survived by his wife, Stephanie Cristle Kelly Motyka; three sons, Michael Kelly of Hermosa Beach, Calif., Stanley Jr. and Victor, at home; three daughters, Mrs. Stanley Laptosh of Virginia, Miss Jean Kelly of Puerto Rico, and Mrs. Victoria Gordon of Hackettstown; two sisters, Mrs. Helen Petruschak of Barnegat, and Mrs. Jane Tomczyk of Parsippany-Troy Hills; and one grandson.

Burial was in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Arrangements were made by the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Hackettstown Rescue Squad.

Star - Gazette,
August 10, 1978.

OBITUARY;
Stanley F. Motyka,
Date of Death,
August 3, 1978.