

ARTHUR MULVIHILL

A Mass was said at St. Mary's Catholic Church Monday morning for Arthur Mulvihill, 62, of 130 Liberty Street, Hackettstown who died suddenly January 18 at Dover General Hospital. Father Stephen A. Bielen officiated.

Born September 12, 1910, in Orange, he was the son of the late Stephen and Mary McGee Mulvihill. Mr. Mulvihill was employed as a smokeless operator at The Hercules Company in Kevil, a member of the Hackettstown First Aid and Rescue Squad and the Joyce Kilmer Council 2843 K of C.

Survivors include his wife, the former Helen Burke; one son, Robert of Hackettstown; one brother, John of Toms River; a sister, Mrs. Alice Brunner of Asbury Park; and two grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Cochran Funeral Home.

Interment was in the Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Star-Gazette,
January 25, 1973

OBITUARY: Arthur Mulvihill
Date of Death,
January 18, 1973