

James Naughtright, general store owner

James K. Naughtright, 67, of Hackettstown, formerly of Long Valley, died Monday, Aug. 23, in Temple University Hospital in Philadelphia.

He was the owner and butcher at the former Bodine's General Store in Long Valley for five years, and was a taxi driver for Hosking Livery in Hackettstown for 30 years before retiring many years ago.

Born July 15, 1932, in Long Valley, he was a son of the late Kenneth and Helen Mae Frone Naughtright. He lived in Hackettstown for many years, moving from Long Valley, where he lived most of his life.

He served in the Army Signal Corps in Japan from 1954 to 1956.

He was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church in Hackettstown.

He was a 43-year life member and past chief for three years of Long Valley Fire Department and a life and charter member for 42 years of the First Aid Squad in Long Valley.

He is survived by his wife of 44 years, the former Barbara A. Pisorchik; a son, William of Belvidere; a daughter, Jamie Naughtright-Whited of Lakeland, Fla.; and a grandchild.

A son, James R., died in 1995.

Graveside services will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday in German Valley Rural Cemetery in Long Valley. Call 5 to 8:30 p.m. Friday in the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown.

The family requests memorials to the Long Valley Fire Department, care of 43 Schooleys Mountain Road, Long Valley, NJ 07853, or Temple Heart Failure Research Fund, Dr. Paul Mather, Temple University, 94 Parkinson Pavilion, Broad and Tioga streets, Philadelphia, PA 19140.
