

OBITUARY

FREDERIK NYHUIS

HACKETTSTOWN—Frederik Nyhuis, 79, Apt. 77, Riverside Gardens, Hackettstown, died Monday in Newton Memorial Hospital, Newton.

Mr. Nyhuis formerly owned and operated the Hackettstown Electric Co. from 1938 to 1947. He later owned and operated the Clermont Electric Co. in Clermont, Fla. He returned to Hackettstown six months ago.

Born in Holland, he was a member of Sussex Lodge, F&AM, and was a former member of the Hackettstown Kiwanis.

Survivors include his widow, the former Gezina Gierveld; two daughters, Mrs. Steven Stanowicz, Hackettstown, and Mrs. Henry Martin, Madison, Wis.; a sister, Mrs. Dinah TerHorst, Holland; six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held at 4 p.m. Thursday at the Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown. Cremation will follow.

The Star, Washington, New Jersey: January 6, 1971

NAME: Frederick Nyhuis

DATE OF DEATH: January 3, 1971

born 30 March 1893