

MRS. GEZINA H. NYHUIS

HACKETTSTOWN — Mrs. Gezina H. Nyhuis, 115 Grand Ave., died Friday at the Newton Nursing Home in Newton, where she had been a patient since December.

Born Oct. 30, 1889, in Holland, Mrs. Nyhuis was a daughter of the late Johann and Janna Cruse Gierveld. She had lived here many years, moved to Florida for a period and returned to Hackettstown in 1970. Her husband Frederik died in 1971. She was a member of Chapter 102 Order of the Eastern Star of Hackettstown.

Eastern Star rites were conducted Monday evening at Cochran Funeral Home here and graveside services were conducted Tuesday morning at Union Cemetery by the Rev. Dr. Lowell M. Atkinson of Trinity United Methodist Church.

Survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Stanowicz of Hackettstown and Mrs. Henry Martin of McHenry, Ill.; two brothers, Bernard Gierveld of The Hague, Holland, Lewis Gierveld of Enschede, Holland; six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Hackettstown First Aid and Rescue Squad.

Star-Gazette,
April 11, 1974

OBITUARY: Gezina H. Nyhuis
Date of Death,
April 6, 1974