

John Nykun

John Nykun, 79, of Washington Township, died after an accidental fall on Aug. 17 in Oxford Township.

He was born in Great Meadows and had lived in Washington Township for the past five years, coming from Oxford Township.

He was a carpenter with Local 399, United Brotherhood of Carpenters, of Belvidere, and retired in 1980.

He was a former charter member of the Independence Township Volunteer Fire Department, and played football for the Hackettstown Eagles, a semi-pro football team in the former North Jersey Pro League.

He is survived by his wife, Julia Bobinecz Nykun; his mother, Mamie Piasecki Nykun of Great Meadows; a daughter, Virginia Nykun of Washington Township; one brother, Andrew Nykun Jr. of Great Meadows; one sister, Helen Zwarych of Great Meadows; one grandson and two great-granddaughters.

Burial was in the St. Rose Cemetery, of Oxford Township. Memorial donations may be sent to the charity of one's choice, and arrangements were made by the Ford Funeral Home.
