

James O'Brien

HACKETTSTOWN — James "Eddie" O'Brien died April 7, 1998, at Hackettstown Hospital. He was 85.

Born in Hoboken, he was a son of John and Minnie Lapnow O'Brien. He lived in Hackettstown for one and a half years and Mansfield Village for 10 years, coming from Union County.

He was a route salesman for Standard Laundries of Jersey City and Consolidated Laundries of Union City before retiring in 1978.

He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church of the Assumption in Hackettstown.

He was a lifetime member of the Knights of Columbus, Carroll Council in Union City. He was active in the Holy Name Society and St. Vincent DePaul Society of St. Michael Monastery church in Union City.

He is survived by his wife, Julia F. Sheeler O'Brien; a son, Edward O'Brien of Allamuchy Township; two daughters, Sheila Hoffman of Oak Park, Ill., and Kathleen Spilter of Coatesville, Pa.; two brothers, John O'Brien of Union City and Joseph O'Brien of Red Bank; a sister, Margaret Commerford of Jersey City; nine grandchildren and a great-grandson.

Services were held on April 9 at Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettstown. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery in Middle Village, N.Y.

WARREN REPORTER
April 19, 1998

OBITUARY: James O'Brien
Date of death
April 7, 1998