

EDWARD O'CONNELL HACKETTSTOWN

Funeral services were held Friday for Edward Joseph O'Connell, 60, of 314 Main St., who died June 7 at Hackettstown Community Hospital after a short illness.

Born in Belleville, he had lived in Newark before moving to Hackettstown 16 years ago. Mr. O'Connell was a World War II Army veteran.

He is survived by his widow, Gertrude Mayer of Allamuchy; four sons, Edward James of Morristown and Kevin, Timothy and Peter all of Allamuchy; three daughters, Mrs. Mary Bensen of Arlington, Va., Mrs. Colleen Kehler of Maryville, Tenn., and Kathleen of Allamuchy; five sisters, Mrs. Bessie MacGeorge and Miss Eileen Brunner, both of Union Beach, Mrs. May Fusselmann and Miss Lucille O'Connell, both of Miami, Fla., and Vivian Forrester of Toms River; four brothers, James of Toms River, Thomas of Fredericksburg, Va., Walter of Florida and Daniel of Delawanna, and two grandchildren.

Services were held at the Scala Memorial Home, 125 High St., Hackettstown, followed by a Liturgy of Christian Burial at St. Mary's Church of the Assumption, Hackettstown.

Interment was in Somerset Hills Cemetery, Basking Ridge.

Star-Gazette,
June 17, 1976

OBITUARY: Edward O'Connell
Date of Death,
June 7, 1976