

Arnold H. O'Donnell

MANSFIELD TWP. — Retired Air Force Master Sgt. Arnold H. O'Donnell died at home yesterday after a short illness. He was 60.

He was born in Irvington and spent 9½ years in the Navy and 25 years in the Air Force before retiring to the Hackettstown area 11 years ago.

He was a member of the Non-Commissioned Officers Association of San Antonio, Texas.

He was a Navy veteran of the Korean War and an Air Force veteran of the Vietnam War, in which he earned the Bronze Star.

He is survived by his wife, Theresa; two sons, Air Force Maj. Robert Thomas O'Donnell, stationed at RAF Mildenhall, England, and Air Force Staff Sgt. Jeffrey B. Fairchild Air Force Base, Spokane, Wash.; a daughter, Patricia M., at home; his father, Harold Donnell, Phoenix, Ariz.; and five grandchildren.

Arrangements are by Scala Memorial Home, 125 High St., Hackettstown.

Daily Record
June 22, 1987

OBITUARY

Arnold H. O'Donnell
Date of Death
June 21, 1987