

MICHAEL R. O'MARA

Services were held Monday afternoon at St. James Episcopal Church for Michael R. O'Mara, 55 of 137 E. Prospect Street, Hackettstown who died Thursday, January 11 at Dover General Hospital after a short illness. Father George H. Brant officiated.

Born December 11, 1917 in Perth Amboy, the son of the late Michael and Ruth Buchanan O'Mara, he was employed as a foreman for Kom-line Sanderson Engineering Company in Peapack.

Mr. O'Mara was an Army veteran of World War II and a member of the Cataract Hose Co. 1 Hackettstown; American Legion Blue Ridge Post 164 Hackettstown and a past commander of that post; and a member of the Hackettstown Moose Lodge and St. James Episcopal Church.

Michael Jr., a foster son, Gary Sliker, both at home; two brothers, James, Miguel, California, and Richard in Maryland; five sisters, Mrs. Agnes Juarcz, Fords; Mrs. Ann Logovda, South Amboy; Mrs. Katherine Gozora, Williamsport, Maryland; Miss Genevieve O'Mara, Vernon and Mrs. Theresa Batanka, Middletown and two grandchildren.

Arrangements were made by the Cochran Funeral Home.

Interment was in the Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Star-Gazette,
January 18, 1973

OBITUARY; Michael R. O'Mara
Date of Death,
January 11, 1973