

Miss Ethel Osmun, teacher 37 years

Miss Ethel E. "Peggy" Osmun, 78, of Heath Village, Hackettstown, died Tuesday in Hackettstown Community Hospital after a long illness.

Born in Pen Argyl, she was a daughter of the late James and Florence Vanatta Osmun.

Miss Osmun was a teacher in the Point Pleasant, N.J., School District for 37 years, retiring 14 years ago.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church, Asbury, N.J.

Surviving are a brother, James Osmun, Ellenville, N.Y., and a sister, Anne Osmun, Asbury Park, N.J.

Services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Friday in the United Methodist Church, Asbury. Interment will be in Musconetcong Valley Cemetery, Hampton. The DeVoe Funeral Service, Washington, is in charge of arrangements.

OSMUN — In Hackettstown, N.J. on June 3, 1980, Ethel E. "Peggy" Osmun, age 78 of Heath Village, Hackettstown, N.J. Funeral services will be Friday, June 6, 1980 at 1:30 P.M. from the United Methodist Church, Asbury, N.J. Interment Musconetcong Valley Cemetery, Hampton, N.J. Calling hours Thursday evening at the DeVoe Funeral Home, Washington. Memorials may be sent to the United Methodist Church, Asbury, N.J.

DeVOE

Easton Express

June 4, 1980

Ethel Osmun

Date of Death;

June 3, 1980