

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

W. G.

The funeral services at the Methodist Church on Thursday was attended by a large concourse of people among whom were many strangers. A large circle of friends was present. Eight ministers were upon the stand, viz:

The pastor Rev. A. H. Tuttle, and his father Rev. James M. Tuttle, Dr. Whitney of the Institute, Rev. Alex. Prouditt of the Presbyterian Church here, Rev. Wm. C. Nelson of Stanhope, Rev. C. E. Little of Elizabeth, Rev. Meachem of Vienna, and Dr. Higgins of this town.

The order of exercises were as follows:

Chant, "Gone Home;" Prayer by Dr. Whitney; Reading of Scriptures, Rev. W. C. Nelson; Hymn, "Asleep in Jesus;" Addresses by the Pastor Rev. A. H. Tuttle, Rev. James M. Tuttle and Rev. C. E. Little. Selection by choir, "He has gone to his grave in peace." Services at grave by Dr. Higgins.
