

Kenneth Pace Sr.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Davis Funeral Home, Succasunna, for Kenneth H. Pace Sr., 67, of Wharton, who died Friday at Dover General Hospital after a long illness.

Born in Chester, he lived in Dover for many years before moving to Wharton 12 years ago.

Following his retirement in 1970 from Picatinny Arsenal where he had been a machine tool operator, he worked as a security guard at Dover General Hospital and as an assistant at the Davis Funeral Home.

He was a member of the Lakeland First Church of the Nazarene of Denville.

Surviving are his wife, Mildred; a son, Kenneth of Indianapolis, Ind.; a daughter, Carol Baber of Rockaway; two brothers, John of Hackettstown and Howard of Stroudsburg, Pa.; and three grandchildren.

Interment was in Succasunna Presbyterian Cemetery.
