MENDHAM — Olive H. Painter, who helped her husband publish the Hackettstown Gazette for 26 years, died Monday at home after a long illness. She was 75.

She was born in Roselle, and lived in Flemington, Hackettstown and Long Valley before moving to Mendham in 1983.

Mrs. Painter was office manager and assistant editor of the once-a-week community newspaper, published by her husband, H. Alan, from 1942-68.

She was a 1933 graduate of Douglass College, New Brunswick.

She was a member of St. James Episcopal Church, Hackettstown, and was active in several amateur theatrical productions in Hackettstown and Long Valley.

She is survived by her husband; a son, Alan S., Mendham; two sisters, Carolyn H. Disbrow, Shore Acres, and Nanette Myers, Milford; and two grandchildren.

Arrangements are by Holcombe-Fisher Funeral Home, 147 Main St., Flemington.
