

Courtlandt Palmer

Courtlandt Palmer, 85, a former Hackettstown resident, died on Jan. 5, in Wayne Memorial Hospital, Goldsboro, N.C.

Born in Westchester, N.Y., he was the son of the late John E. and Margaret Wunder Palmer.

He was a resident of Hackettstown from 1929 to 1960, when he and his family moved to Lumberton, N.C.

Mr. Palmer had worked for 20 years as the service manager for Whitehouse Chevrolet and Oldsmobile. Prior to his retirement in 1985, he had worked as the service manager for Freeman Motors in Lumberton.

He was a World War II Army veteran, and had served in the 94th Division of Gen. George Patton's 3rd Army, from the invasion of Normandy at Omaha Beachhead, through the Ardennes, Northern France, the Rhineland and Central Europe. He had been a member of the Army of Occupation of Czechoslovakia. Among his various medals for service were the American Service Medal, the European, African,

Middle Eastern Service medals, and the Purple Heart.

Mr. Palmer was predeceased by an infant son in 1955, his wife, Sue Ella Britt Palmer in 1982, and his brother, George, in 1987.

His is survived by two daughters, Nina Warwick of Lumberton and Julia Scott of Goldsboro, with whom he lived for the past five months; two brothers, John E. and Raymond T., both of Hackettstown; two sisters, Margaret Hayes of Lumberton and John Partone of Southampton, N.Y.; two grandchildren, Garron and Dana Warwick of Lumberton.

Funeral services were held on Jan. 8 at the Biggs and Prevatte Funeral Home, Lumberton, with the Rev. Joseph DiMauro officiating. Interment followed in Garden of Faith Cemetery in Lumberton.

Memorial donations may be made in Mr. Palmer's name to the Home and Health Services of Goldsboro, N.C. 27530, or the Hospice of Goldsboro, Goldsboro, N.C. 27530.

OBITUARY

Courtlandt Palmer, formerly of Hackettstown

GOLDSBORO, N.C. — Courtlandt Palmer, 85, of Goldsboro, formerly of Hackettstown, died Wednesday, Jan. 5, in Wayne Memorial Hospital in Goldsboro.

He was service manager of Freeman Motors in Lumberton for many years before retiring in 1985. Prior to that, he was service manager of Whitehouse Chevrolet and Oldsmobile in Hackettstown for 20 years.

Born June 12, 1908, in Westchester, N.Y., he was a son of the late John E. and Margaret Wunder Palmer. He lived in Hackettstown from 1929 to 1960 before moving to North Carolina.

He served in the 94th Division of Patton's 3rd Army during World War II. His service decorations include the American Service Medal, the European, African and Middle Eastern Service Medal, the Good Conduct Medal, the Victory Medal, the Combat Medal and the Purple Heart.

His wife, the former Sue Ella Britt, died in 1982.

He is survived by two daughters, Nina Warwick of Lumberton and Julia Scott of Goldsboro, with whom he resided; two brothers, John E. and Raymond T., both of Hackettstown; two sisters, Margaret Hayes of Lumberton and Julia Partone of Southampton, N.J.; and two grandchildren. A son died at birth, and a brother, George, died earlier.

Services were held on Saturday, Jan. 8, in the Biggs and Prevatte Funeral Home in Lumberton. Burial was in the Garden of Faith Cemetery in Lumberton.

The family requests memorials to Home and Health Services and the Hospice, Goldsboro, NC 27530.

The Star-Gazette: January 20, 1994

Express-Times: January 15, 1994

NAME: Courtlandt Palmer

DATE OF DEATH: January 5, 1994