

Theodore Park.

Theodore Park, the Hope street blacksmith, aged 58 years, seven months and six days, died at his home on Valentine street last Sunday morning from paralysis. He was formerly a resident of Oxford and for many years was employed at the iron works there. He is survived by a widow, one son, William B., of this place and one daughter, Mrs. Daniel Hartman, of Scranton, also an aged mother, and four brothers: John O., Lyman, David and Joseph, of this place. He was a member of Musconetcong Lodge, I. O. O. F., which attended the funeral in the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon and conducted the services at the grave.

The Warren Republican: July 8, 1904

NAME: Theodore Park

DATE OF DEATH: July 3, 1904