

LEON PERRINE
HACKETTSTOWN — Leon Perrine, 63-year-old, of 1111 1/2 Street, Hackettstown, died Tuesday, November 20, at St. Barnabas Medical Center in Livingston, where he had been a patient for six days.

Born August 5, 1910 in Rockport, Mr. Perrine was a son of Mrs. Cora Perrine of Washington and the late Mr. William Perrine.

Mr. Perrine, who had lived most of his life in the area, was a maintenance employee at Middleton Leather Company. He was a charter member of the Hackettstown First Aid and Rescue Squad, Moose Lodge No. 512 in Washington, B.P.O.W. 2331 Hackettstown and treasurer of the 13th District of the New Jersey First Aid Council.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his widow, Mrs. Catherine Smith Perrine; a daughter, Mrs. Harry Stevenson of Hackettstown; two sisters, Mrs. Effie Hannegan, High Bridge and Mrs. Alac Kowalechuk of Washington; and two grandchildren.

Services were conducted on Saturday afternoon at the Cochran Funeral home here by the Rev. Raymond H. Crawford with interment at Pequest Union Cemetery in Great Meadows.

Star-Gazette,
 November 29, 1973

OBITUARY: Leon Perrine
 Date of Death,
 November 20, 1973