

OBITUARY

THOMAS S. PERRINE

Thomas S. Perrine, 81 years old, died Friday of last week, at the home of his son, Clarence Perrine, 131 Mountain Avenue, Hackettstown, after an illness of a year. He was a native of Hackettstown and had lived here and in the vicinity practically all his life. For the last fifteen years, prior to his illness he was employed by the State Highway Department, and prior to that he worked on township and county roads.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Frank Tynan, of Hackettstown; five sons, William and Robert, of Jackson Valley, and Edward Lewis, and Clarence, of Hackettstown, and by his foster mother, Mrs. M. E. Perrine, of Schooley's Mt.

Funeral services were held at the home, 131 Mountain Avenue, on Monday, at 2 P. M., in charge of the Rev. Reuben F. Pieters, pastor of the Hackettstown Presbyterian Church, and interment was made in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.
