

Helen H. Pfeiffer

HACKETTSTOWN — Helen H. Pfeiffer, 84, died Sunday at the House of the Good Shepherd, Hackettstown, after a long illness.

She was born in Newark and lived most of her life in the Hackettstown area.

Mrs. Pfeiffer was a teacher in the Allamuchy public schools for many years before retiring in 1968.

As a volunteer at Hackettstown Community Hospital, she accumulated 13,000 hours. She was a member of St. James Episcopal Church, Hackettstown, and the Retired Teachers Association of New Jersey.

Charles died in

Helen H. Pfeiffer

1988

Services were held Aug. 18 for Helen H. Pfeiffer, 84, of Hackettstown, who died Aug. 14 at the House of the Good Shepherd, after a long illness.

She was born Helen Herrick in Newark, and lived most of her life in Hackettstown.

She was an elementary school teacher until she retired from the Allamuchy Township school system in 1968.

Mrs. Pfeiffer was a member of St. James Episcopal Church of Hackettstown and the Retired Teachers' Association, and was a volunteer at Hackettstown Community Hospital, with 13,000 hours of service.

Surviving are a son, Richard, of Hackettstown; and two grandchildren.

Interment was in Union Cemetery, Hackettstown. The Cochran Funeral of Hackettstown was in charge of arrangements.

Star Gazette

August 18, 1988

Date of death,
August 14, 1988

Daily Record

August 16, 1988

OBITUARY: Date of death:
August 14, 1988

Helen H. Pfeiffer