

Claudia Piagesi, 102, hosiery mill worker

Claudia "Clara" Piagesi, 102, of Care Center of Lopatcong in Lopatcong Township, formerly of New Village, died Thursday, Jan. 29, in the center.

She was an examiner of silk stockings at Pohatcong Hosiery, formerly in Washington, for 20 years. Later she worked at United Can Co., formerly in New Village, for eight years.

Born Jan. 11, 1896, in Ancona, Italy, she was a daughter of the late Raphael and Theresa Perini Urbanelli.

She was a member of St. Christopher Catholic Church in New Village, and Catholic Daughters, Court Warren.

Her husband, Augusto, died in 1963.

She is survived by a son, Raymond A. of Hackettstown; a daughter, Anna Florentine of Hackettstown; seven grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

A son, Hugo "Hap," died in 1997. A brother, Gino, and three sisters, Frances Minardi, Matilda Soldati and Cielia Marinelli, died earlier.

Services will be held at 9 a.m. Monday from Finegan Funeral Home, 302 Heckman St., Phillipsburg. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m. in Sts. Philip and James Catholic Church, 426 S. Main St., Phillipsburg. Call 8 a.m. Monday to time of services in the funeral home. Burial will be in Sts. Philip and James Cemetery in Greenwich Township.