

OBITUARY

JOSEPH PIERCE

HACKETTSTOWN — The funeral of Joseph Pierce, 58, was held Friday morning at the Metzler Funeral Home. Mr.

Pierce died Tuesday of last week of a heart attack at the Hercules Powder Co., Kenil, where he was employed as an explosive operator.

The son of the late Andrew and Emma Strauss Pierce, he was born March 10, 1905 in Hackettstown, and lived in the area all his life. From 1923 to 1926 he served in the U. S. Army.

He is survived by his widow, the former Appolonia Feltes; four sons, James, of Binghamton, N.Y.; William, of San Francisco, Calif.; Richard, of West Hollywood, Fla., and John, at home; three daughters, Miss Catherine Pierce, of West Hollywood, Fla.; Mrs. Joan Castner, of Camp Hill, Pa.; and Miss Margaret Pierce, of Morris Plains; three brothers, Charles, of Florida; Andrew, of Washington, and Lillford, of Dover, and a sister, Mrs. Helen June, of Hackettstown.

The Washington Star : 30 January, 1964

NAME: Joseph Pierce

DATE OF DEATH: