

OBITUARY

Stanley Pietraszkiewicz

Stanley Pietraszkiewicz, 74, of Hackettstown died March 9 at Warren Hospital after a short illness.

He was born in Massachusetts Aug. 18, 1921, and lived in New York City before moving to Hackettstown 50 years ago.

For 25 years, he worked for Hercules Powder Co. in Kenvil. He then worked for M&M/Mars from 1973 to 1983, when he retired.

Mr. Pietraszkiewicz served in the U.S. Army during World War II, from 1943 to 1945. He was a member of the American Legion Blue Ridge Post 164, Hackettstown.

He was a member of St. Mary's Church of the Assumption in Hackettstown and a former member of St. Nicholas Ukrainian Catholic Church in Great Meadows.

His wife, Stephanie Orach, died May 17 1995.

He is survived by two sons, Lee Pietraszkiewicz of Port Murray and Lex Pietraszkiewicz of Oak Ridge; a daughter, Star March of Shermans Dale, Pa.; a sister, Rose Galante of New York City; and eight grandchildren.

A Mass of Christian Burial was said by Father Bielen at St. Mary's Church of the Assumption March 16, and burial was in Pequest Union Cemetery, Great Meadows.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the American Diabetes Association, 95 Madison Ave., Morristown, NJ 07960.

Arrangements were by the Scala Memorial Home, Hackettstown.
