

Veronica K. Pitts

PORT ST. LUCIE, FLA. — Veronica K. Williams Pitts died Feb. 4 in Port St. Lucie Medical Center. She was 58.

Born in Newark, she was a daughter of Kathryn Williams of Lawrenceville, formerly of Port Murray, and the late George C. Williams.

She and her husband, Charles "Chuck," were married for 37 years.

She grew up in the Washington area and was a 1962 graduate of Hackettstown High School. She attended Lock Haven College for a year and returned to New Jersey, where she graduated from Trenton State College, now The College of New Jersey, in 1966, with a bachelor's degree in elementary education. After she taught in the Hackettstown, Plainfield and Phillipsburg school districts, she retired from her accomplished career as an educator in 1977. She was a licensed real estate appraiser and realtor in both Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Prior to her retirement to Port St. Lucie, she and her husband had resided in Easton.

She is survived by her devoted husband; their son, George; two grandchildren, Tyler and Dylan Pitts of Tampa, Fla.; her brother, Richard Williams of Salem; her sister, Harriet W. Johnson of Salisbury, Md.; two nieces, Kathryn W. Sanchez of Escondido, Calif.; and Monica W. Hix of Jacksonville, N.C.; two sisters-in-law, Shirley Burroughs of Parsippany, and Barbara White of Morristown; a nephew, Norman Burroughs of Union; and many other relatives and friends.

A brother, Vernon Williams, died earlier.

A Christian memorial service was held at Mount Pisgah A.M.E. Church in Princeton.
