

MR. AND MRS. H. R. POOL SR.
BEATTYSTOWN — A double funeral was held Wednesday for Harry R. and Annie H. Pool who died within hours of each other Sunday.

Pool, 83, died Sunday morning at Morristown Memorial Hospital after a long illness. His wife of 60 years, who was 80, died that evening at the Farnhill Convalescent Center, Newton, where she had been a guest since April.

Pool was born May 28, 1892 in Hackettstown, a son of the late Oscar and Annie Russell Pool. Mrs. Pool was born Feb. 25, 1895 in Pleasant Grove, a daughter of the late Jacob and Elizabeth Coleman Apgar.

They had lived in Beattystown for many years. Both were lifetime residents of the Hackettstown area.

He was a retired truck driver. She had been a member of the Beattystown Presbyterian Church since 1910 and was a former trustee and elder as well as church organist from 1952 to 1974.

They are survived by a son, Harry R. Jr. of Port Murray and one granddaughter.

Services for both were held at the Beattystown Presbyterian Church, conducted by Rev. Wilhelm Baer, a retired Presbyterian minister from Hackettstown.

Arrangements were made by the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown.

Interment was in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Star-Gazette,
 December 4, 1975

OBITUARY: Harry R. & Annie H. Pool
 Date of Death,
 November 30, 1975