

Thomas P. Pooley, former Hackettstown school board president

JUNO BEACH, Fla. — Thomas Pickering Pooley, formerly of Hackettstown and Long Valley, N.J., died yesterday at Jupiter Care Center after a long illness. He was 74.

He was born in Newark and lived in Bloomfield, N.J., Long Valley and Hackettstown, before moving to Juno Beach in 1976.

While living in Hackettstown he worked for the former Lackawanna Leather Co. and then was vice president of the Middleton Leather Co. before retiring in 1976.

He served on the Hackettstown Board of Education and was president when the high school was planned in 1957. In Juno Beach, he was a member of the municipal governing body.

He was a member of the Palm

Beach Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution.

Surviving are his wife, Joanna; two daughters, Betsey Cutler, Mill Valley, Calif., and Elyn Brennan, San Francisco; a sister, Betsey Bachman, Spring Lake Heights,

N.J.; and five grandchildren.

His first wife, Muriel, died in 1982.

Arrangements are by Northwood Funeral Home, 5608 Broadway, West Palm Beach.

Daily Record

August 23, 1988

OBITUARY

Thomas P. Pooley