

Marjorie Ruth Porto

HACKETTSTOWN — Marjorie Ruth (Fehse) Porto, 85, died Friday, Jan. 16, 2004 in St. Clare's Hospital/Denville.

She was born Dec. 23, 1918 in New York City to Rudolph Emil and Christine Schmidt Fehse.

She graduated from Dwight Morrow High School in Englewood, attended Wellesley College in Wellesley, Mass., and graduated from Katherine Gibbs School in New York City.

During World War II, she served with the Office of War Information in Lisbon, Portugal.

In 1980, she retired from the Klopman Mills Division of Burlington Industries, where she had been employed as personnel manager.

In 1982, she moved to Myrtle Beach, Fla., where she volunteered with Chapin Memorial Library and the Auxiliary of Grand Strand Regional Medical Center.

In 2002, she moved to Hackettstown.

She was predeceased by her husband, Joseph Arthur, who died in 1997.

Surviving are two daughters, Susan Porto Weckbaugh of Bailey, Colo., and Janice Porto of Richmond Calif.; her son, Mark Fehse Porto of Mendham; two sisters, Norma Zettler of Simpsonville, S.C., and Marion Taylor of Richardson, Texas; and two grandchildren, Christopher Michael Porto Weckbaugh of Bailey, Colo., and Allison Kinzy-Porto Yale of Richmond, Calif.

Arrangements were by the Bailey Funeral Home in Mendham.

The Warren Reporter: January 30, 2004

NAME: Marjorie Ruth (Fehse) Porto

DATE OF DEATH: January 16, 2004