

OBITUARY

Grace C. Powell

A Mass of Christian Burial was said Monday at Our Lady of the Mountain Church, Schooley's Mountain, for Grace C. Powell, 83, of Hackettstown, who died March 16 at her home after a long illness.

She was born in New York City and resided there most of her life, moving to Hackettstown 16 years ago.

Since 1982, Mrs. Powell wrote a column for senior citizens, "Voice of Maturity," for The Star-Gazette. She had served as Hackettstown coordinator for the Warren County Office on Aging, and was a hostess clerk for the Hackettstown senior nutrition center.

Mrs. Powell founded the Saturday Afternoon Senior Citizens Club of Hackettstown and the Happy Seniors Travel Club. She also started the Thursday Senior Citizens Alcoholics Anonymous Club of Hackettstown.

From 1964 to 1971, she was employed by the New York Post as assistant advertising manager. Prior to that, she had been employed by the Journal of Commerce in New York City and by Tellanswephone Inc., also in New York City.

Mrs. Powell was a member of Our Lady of the Mountain Church, Schooley's Mountain, and of the Hackettstown Republican Club.

She is survived by two daughters, Michelle Yatsko of Great Meadows and Lucille Chesney of Independence; two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The Scala Memorial Home of Hackettstown was in charge of arrangements.

Star-Gazette: 23 March 1989
~~The Express-Times:~~

~~The Warren Reporter:~~

NAME: Grace C. Powell

DATE OF DEATH: 16 March 1989