

Florence May Prall

Florence May Prall, 89, of Manchester, Md., and formerly of Hackettstown, died Friday in Hanover General Hospital in York, Pa., after a long illness.

Born Oct. 31, 1899, in Fairmont Springs, Pa., she was a daughter of the late James G. and Ella Stevens Hess.

She lived in Somerville, N.J., until 1939, before moving to Hackettstown. In 1979, she moved to Manchester.

She was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church in Hackettstown and the Hackettstown Women's Club.

Her husband, George M. Prall, died in 1965.

Surviving are: one son, George M. Prall of Hampstead, Md.; one sister, Emily Amerman of Doylestown, Pa.; four grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Tuesday at the Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettstown. Interment will be in Somerville New Cemetery in Somerville.

THE EXPRESS

September 24, 1989

Florence May Prall

Date of death: September 22, 1989