

JESSE WARREN RAPP

DOVER — Funeral services were held Tuesday for Jesse Warren Rapp of 20 Boonton St., who died Feb. 28 at St. Clare's Hospital in Denville after a long illness.

Born Jan. 15, 1902 in Hackettstown, Mr. Rapp was a son of the late William S. and Alda Call Rapp. He had lived in Dover for the past 46 years and was a retired employee in the clerical department of Erie-Lackawanna Railroad.

Surviving are his wife, Grace A. Wilken; a son, Dr. William R. Rapp of Millstone; two daughters, Miss Louise A. Rapp of Dover and Mrs. Alda J. Hoffman of Mine Hill. Another daughter, Mrs. Joan Buchanan, died recently. He also leaves six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society.

Services were conducted at the Davis Funeral Home, Succasunna, by the Rev. Daniel Klement.

Interment was in Locust Hill Cemetery, Dover.

Star-Gazette,
February 2, 1978.

Obituary;
Jesse Warren Rapp,
Date of Death, January 28, 1978