

OBITUARY

Lena Shimanski

Services were held for Lena Shimanski, 66, of Hackettstown, who died July 11 at Hackettstown Community Hospital after a short illness.

She was born in Califon and lived in Hackettstown most of her life.

She retired in 1990 after 8 years as an assembler with North Atlantic Industries in Hackettstown.

Her husband, Constantine, died in 1972. She is survived by three sons, Stanley of Orwell, N.Y., Joseph of Hackettstown and William, at home; one daughter, Diane Shimanski of Hackettstown; six brothers, Donald Thomas of Manville, Howard Thomas of Stroudsburg, Pa., Morrison Cameron of Hampton, Frank Cameron and Roderick Cameron, both of Saylorsburg, Pa., and James of Washington; two sisters, Marsha Pipp of Manville and Grace Meehan of Oxford; and three grandchildren.

Interment was in Union Cemetery, Hackettstown. The Scala Memorial Home of Hackettstown was in charge of arrangements.

The Star-Gazette: July 18, 1991

NAME: Lena Shimanski

DATE OF DEATH: July 11, 1991