

Emily G. Shuster, operated china, glass firm in Hackettstown

Emily G. Shuster, 82, of 5698 Northeast Seventh Ave., Boca Raton, Fla., died Wednesday in her home.

She had owned and operated Van Cleve China and Glass Co., Hackettstown, for 20 years, moving from Connecticut, where she had the business for 35 years.

Born in East Stroudsburg, she was a daughter of the late William and Mabel Coffman Case.

Mrs. Shuster was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Boca Raton.

Her husband, Van Cleve Shuster, died before her.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Lorraine Campbell, Boca Raton, two sisters, Arminda Murray, Stewart, Fla., and Kathern Lingerfelder, Beachwood, N.J., and two granddaughters.

Graveside services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday in Oakland Cemetery, Mountainhome. The Santerman & Allen Funeral Home, East Stroudsburg, is in charge of arrangements.

The Express,
November 30, 1981

OBITUARY;
Emily G. Schuster
Date of Death,
December 9, 1981.