

GEORGE IRVING SIMMONS

73 years old, died suddenly Tuesday morning, December 14, 1943, in Hackettstown. He made his home with a sister, Mrs. William Lanterman of 319 Washington Street. He was born in the vicinity of Marksboro and spent the greater part of his life in Hackettstown. His last employment was with his brother-in-law, William Lanterman, in a shoe store.

Mr. Simmons was a member of First Presbyterian Church; a past master of Independence Lodge No. 42, F. & A. M. He is survived by another sister, Mrs. Victoria Kerr, also living at the Lanterman home.

Funeral services will be held from the home of his sister tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock in charge of the Rev. C. Gordon Reynolds, pastor of First Presbyterian Church. Interment in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Publication unknown (Possibly Hackettstown Gazette)

NAME: George Irving Simmons

DATE OF DEATH: December 14, 1943