

OBITUARY

Nicholas Simonetti

Nicholas Simonetti, 85, of Hackettstown, died on May 5 at Hackettstown Community Hospital, after a long illness.

Born in Italy, Mr. Simonetti was a son of the late Michael and Maria Allocco Simonetti. After coming to the United States, he lived in Brooklyn for many years, in Ozone Park, Queens, and since 1970, in Hackettstown.

He had been a pipe fitter for Pfizer Inc., Brooklyn, having worked there for 36 years. He retired in 1970.

He was a member of Our Lady of the Mountain Roman Catholic Church.

Mr. Simonetti and his wife, Josephine, were active supporters for many years of the Joyce Kilmer Council of the Knights of Columbus annual senior citizens day.

His son, Nicholas Pesce, died May 22, 1980.

Aside from his wife, Josephine Amato Simonetti, at home; Mr. Simonetti is survived by three daughters, Theresa Lash of Bethlehem, Pa., Dolores O'Donnell of Allentown, Pa., and Eva Oliver of Hackettstown; eight grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

A funeral Mass was held at 10:15 a.m. on May 9 at Our Lady of the Mountain Church. Interment was in Pequest Union Cemetery, Great Meadows.

All arrangements were by the Scala Memorial Home, 124 High St., Hackettstown.

---

The Star-Gazette: May 12, 1994

NAME: Nicholas Simonetti

DATE OF DEATH: May 5, 1994