

Jay S. Sippel

Jay S. Sippel, 64, of Elmore Nursing Home, Mt. Home, Idaho, died Oct. 29 at home.

Mr. Sippel was born Feb. 18, 1932 in Hazelton, Pa. He had lived in Idaho the past year, coming from the Hackettstown area.

He was a veteran with the U.S. Air Force and formerly attended Our Lady of the Mountain Church, Schooley's Mountain.

Mr. Sippel is survived by two daughters, Cynthia F. Holland of Mt. Home, Idaho and Elizabeth L. Riley of Belvidere; and several grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at Cochran Funeral Home, Hackett-tstown. Burial was at Gate of Heaven Cemetery, East Hanover.

Cochran Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Jay S. Sippel, lived in Hackettstown

Jay S. Sippel, 64, of Elmore Nursing Home in Mt. Home, Idaho, formerly of Hackettstown, died Tuesday, Oct. 29, in the home.

Born Feb. 18, 1932, in Hazelton, Pa., he was a son of the late John A. and Florence Drumm Sippel. He resided in Mt. Home for the past year.

He was an Air Force veteran.

He attended Our Lady of the Mountain Church in Schooleys Mountain.

His wife, the former Claire Cipriani, died June 11, 1994.

He is survived by two daughters, Cynthia F. Holland of Mt. Home and Elizabeth L. Riley of Belvidere; and several grandchildren.

Services will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday from the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown. Call 7 to 9 tonight in the funeral home.

Burial will be in Gate of Heaven Cemetery in East Hanover, N.J.