

Mrs. Slater, 78, Of Hackettstown, Active In Clubs

Mrs. Bertha T. Slater, 78, 106 Valley View Ave., Hackettstown, died this morning at her home. She had been ill a long time.

Mrs. Slater was the wife of Howard Slater. Born in Washington, N. J., she was a daughter of the late Samuel and Ella Yard Thompson. She lived in Hackettstown for the last 34 years.

She was a member of the Hackettstown Presbyterian Church. She was founder and past president of the East Camden Woman's Club, Camden, N. J. She was past president of the Hackettstown Woman's Club, and past regent and secretary of the Peggy Warne Chapter of the Daughters of American Revolution.

Surviving, in addition to her husband, are two sons, Frank, Lake Mohawk, N. J., and Robert, Plainmont, N. J., and two grandchildren.

The funeral will be held at 4 p.m. Thursday at the Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown.

6 Easton Express
September 9, 1957

OBITUARY
Mrs. Bertha Slater
Date of Death
September 9, 1957