

Chester 'Chet' Smigel

HACKETTSTOWN — Chester 'Chet' Smigel, 68, of Hackettstown, died July 3, 2007, in Greenville, N.C. while vacationing at the Outer Banks.

Born Aug. 13, 1938 in Phillipsburg, he was a son to the late Chester and Anna Helen Balash Smigel.

Chet has lived in Hackettstown since 1994 moving from the Hardwick Township and Blairstown areas. He was employed with Home Depot in Succasunna. Prior to that, he was a building contractor in Blairstown.

He is a former member of the New Jersey Builders Association and was past president of the Blairstown Rotary.

He is survived by his loving wife and best friend Lois

Wilson Smigel; three sons, Curt of Ringwood, Craig and his wife, Carolene of Andover, and Christopher and his wife, Sally, of Blairstown; a daughter, Cynthia Bizik and her husband, Richard, of Newton; three stepchildren, Susan Maccarone of Mt. Bethel, Pa., Dennes Monticello and his wife, Liz, of Clinton, and David Monticello and his wife, Julie of Arlington, Va.; a brother, Thomas and his wife, Susan of Red Bank; and 12 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at Saturday, July 7 in the Newbaker Funeral Home, 200 Route 94, Blairstown.

Donations in Chet's memory may be made to Trinity United Methodist Church, 213 Main St., Hackettstown, NJ 07840.

The Warren Reporter: July 20, 2007

NAME: Cester "Chet" Smigel

DATE OF DEATH: July 3, 2007