

OBITUARY

Herman "Buddy" H. Smith

Herman "Buddy" H. Smith, 53, of Liberty Township, died Jan. 11 at home.

Born June 8, 1948 in Phillipsburg, he was a lifelong resident of the greater Hackettstown area. He was a son of Margaret Burns Smith and the late Horace Herman Smith.

He was the owner of Main St. Sunoco, Hackettstown, for the past 17 years. Prior to that he worked at Nuclear Research, Denville, as a component sprayer and also at Middletown Leather Co., Hackettstown, in the tanning and painting department for 17 years.

He was a member of Our Lady of the Mountain Roman Catholic Church, Schooley's Mountain, and the Hackettstown Fire Department/Cataract Hose Company, Hackettstown.

He was an avid golfer and car enthusiast. He was a charter member of the "Memorial Day Madness" car show which is held annually in Hackettstown to benefit the American Cancer Society. He was also active in Go-Cart racing for many years within the tri-state area.

Survivors include his wife, Maureen (Skinner) Smith, at home; his mother, Margaret (Burns) Smith, of Belvidere; a brother, Ronald, of Morristown; a sister, Grace Ramage of Hackettstown; 12 nieces and nephews; and two great-nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were by Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown. Following a Mass at Our Lady of the Mountain Roman Catholic Church, interment was in Pequest Union Cemetery, Great Meadows.
