

JASPER B. SMITH HACKETTSTOWN

Funeral services were held Monday for Jasper B. Smith, 73, of Main Street, who died Friday at Hackettstown Community Hospital, following a short illness.

Born in New Jersey, he moved here four years ago from Bernardsville, where he was a ticket agent for the Erie Lackawanna Railway for 35 years. He retired eight years ago.

Survivors include two sons, Sidney, of Norfolk, Va., and Jay, of Morristown; three daughters, Mrs. Henry McDill, Reading, Oa., Mrs. William Faughnan, Fairfax, Va., and Mrs. Harry Prechtel, Cokesville, Md.; two sisters, Mrs. Marjorie Lott and Miss Gertrude, both of Flemington; 18 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Services were conducted from the Gallaway and Crane Funeral Home, 9 Church Street, Bernardsville.

Star-Gazette,
February 27, 1975

OBITUARY: Jasper B. Smith
Date of Death,
February 21, 1975