

OBITUARY

Death of John M. (McCracken) Smith

John M. Smith, aged 71 years, died at his home in Orange last Thursday of Brights disease. He was the son of the late George and Caroline Smith, former residents here. He served two terms as alderman of the second ward Orange. He was connected with the firm of Williams & Condit, carriage makers, Orange, for forty-one years. He was a member of Lafayette Lodge I. O. O. F., and the Orange Methodist Church. He is survived by a widow and four daughters, Mrs. C. G. Roff, Mrs. E. H. Nafie. Mrs. Charles E. Calame and Miss Bessie E. Smith, and one son, Charles A. Smith, of Boston, Mass. The remains were brought here last Saturday morning and interred in Union Cemetery.

The Warren Republican, Hackettstown: April 20, 1906

NAME: Smith, John McCracken

DATE OF DEATH: April 12, 1906