

LESTER SMITH

HACKETTSTOWN —

Funeral services were held Saturday for Lester Smith, 66, who died Thursday at Heath Village after a long illness.

He was a retired dry cleaner for Mardenly Cleaners, Rockport, where he was employed for 25 years. He was a past commander of Blue Ridge Post 164 American Legion, Hackettstown.

Born on June 2, 1909 in Hackettstown, he was a son of the late David and Emma Riedinger Smith.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Judith Banta of Long Valley, and Mrs. Margaret Eskow of Hackettstown; a son, Lester Jr. of Salt Lake City, Utah; two brothers, Barney of Hackettstown and Gilbert of Long Valley; seven sisters, Mrs. Blance Hannigan, Mrs. Hazel Sutton, Mrs. Mabel Deumer, Mrs. Betty Young and Mrs. Alice Lake, all of Hackettstown, Mrs. Jane Habel of Stanhope and Mrs. Anna Onney of Stroudsburg; and six grandchildren, a son, Thomas, died four months ago.

Services were held at the Scala Memorial Home, 124 High St., Hackettstown. American Legion services were held Saturday night by Blue Ridge Post 164.

Interment was in Pleasant Grove Cemetery, Schooley's Mountain.

Star-Gazette,
July 17, 1975

OBITUARY: Lester Smith
Date of Death,
July 10, 1975