

church cemetery.

MELVIN SMITH

HACKETTSTOWN—Melvin Smith, 37, 256 Main St., died October 12 at Hahnemann Hospital, Philadelphia, following a long illness.

Smith was an Army veteran of the Korean War and a member of Hackettstown Moose Lodge 816 and American Legion Blue Ridge Post 164.

Born May 25, 1936, in Hancock, New York, Smith was the son of Helen Hazen Smith, Hackettstown and the late Melvin Smith. He was a retired molder with Elastimold.

Survivors include his wife, Margaret Barabas; a son, Melvin Jr., and two daughters, Ann and Lisa, all at home; his mother, and two sisters, Mrs. Cora Levens of Vermont and Mrs. Hildred Kane of Hackettstown.

Father Stephen Bielen of St. Mary's, Hackettstown, officiated at rites at the Metzler Funeral Home Tuesday. Interment was at Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Star-Gazette,
October 18, 1973

OBITUARY: Melvin Smith
Date of Death,
October 12, 1973