

OBITUARY

Barbara May Snyder

HACKETTSTOWN — Barbara May Snyder died Thursday, Feb. 8, 2007 in Compassionate Care Hospice at St. Clare's, Dover. She was 66.

Barbara lived in Hackettstown most of her life and was born in Bridgeton, NJ on June 18, 1940. She was the daughter of Louise (Wilhelm) Christine and the late Paul Hewitt.

Barbara was employed by the House of the Good Shepherd, Hackettstown for 30 years in the Dietary Department, retiring in 2005.

She was a crossing guard at Warren Street for years; she also loved Bingo.

In addition to her mother, she is survived by a son, Lester A. and his wife Karen Snyder, Effort, Pa.; a daughter, Sandra L. and her husband Tom Stone, Hackettstown; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; former husband, Lester Snyder. Her companion of 15 years, David Marcin, died earlier.

Arrangements were made by the Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown. Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made to Compassionate Care Hospice at St. Clare's Hospital, 400 Blackwell Street, Dover, NJ 07801.

The Warren Reporter: February 23, 2007

NAME: Barbara May (Hewitt) Snyder

DATE OF DEATH: February 8, 2007