

OBITUARY

MRS. HELEN R. SNYDER

HACKETTSTOWN — Mrs. Helen R. Snyder, 63, of 429 Washington St., Hackettstown, died Monday in the Morristown Memorial Hospital after a short illness.

Born in Hackettstown, Aug. 31, 1900, she was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richter. She was a lifelong resident of Hackettstown.

Mrs. Snyder was a teacher in the Hackettstown Public School System from 1925 until about four years ago when she retired. She taught physical education.

She was a graduate of Savage School for Physical Education in Boston, Mass. She was a member of First Presbyterian Church, Hackettstown; the New Jersey Education Association, Warren County Teachers Association, the National Teachers Association, and the Musconetcong Country Club.

Survivors include her husband, Raymond Snyder; a brother, John, Hackettstown, and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Groondyke, Belvidere.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown.

The Washington Star: July 9, 1964

NAME: Helen (nee Richter) Snyder

DATE OF DEATH: July 6, 1964