

Helen Sosnowski, M&M/Mars worker

Helen Regina Sosnowski, 76, of Alterra Villas at the Atrium, Boulder, Colo., formerly of Hackettstown, died Wednesday, Sept. 26, in Longmont United Hospital, Longmont, Colo.

Sosnowski

She was a homemaker. She also worked at M&M/Mars in Hackettstown for 10 years.

Born March 8, 1925, in Allamuchy, N.J., she was a daughter of the late Joseph and Annie Ratchitz Kasper. She resided in Hackettstown, moving to Boulder in 1997.

She attended St. John's Episcopal Church in Boulder.

Her husband of 54 years, Vitold, died earlier.

She is survived by three sons, David of Boulder, Martin of Tinton Falls, N.J., and William of Mount Bethel; two sisters, Regina Terick of Orlando, Fla., and Tessie Rogers of Great Meadows; and six grandchildren.

Two brothers, Benjamin and Chester, died earlier.

Memorial services will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday in Alterra Villas at the Atrium, 3350 30th St., Boulder. Graveside services will be held at 11 a.m. Friday in Pequest Union Cemetery, Great Meadows.

The Howe Mortuary, 439 Coffman St., Longmont, is in charge of arrangements.

The family requests memorials to the church organ restoration project, 1419 Pine St., Boulder, CO 80302.

Express Times: October 1, 2001

NAME: Sosnowski, Helen Regina (nee Kasper)

DATE OF DEATH: September 26, 2001