

LELAND J. SPARNONHACKETTSTOWN

Funeral services were held Wednesday for Leland J. Sparnon, 83, at 303 West Valley View Ave., who died Saturday at the Little Brook Nursing Home, Califon, where he had been a guest five weeks.

Born June 19, 1892, in Sparta, he was a son of the late John O. and Harrietta Clark Sparnon.

He retired in June of 1962 as a machinist at Picatinny Arsenal, Dover. He was a member of the Trinity United Methodist Church, Hackettstown.

He is survived by his widow, the former Gertrude Riehl; a son, Raymond, and two brothers, Kennedy of Cape Cod, Mass., and Raymond C. of Walcott, N.Y., and three grandchildren.

Services were held at the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown, conducted by Dr. Lowell M. Atkinson of Trinity Church.

Interment was in the family plot at Pequest Union Cemetery, Great Meadows.

Star-Gazette,
May 6, 1976

OBITUARY: Leland J. Sparnon
Date of Death,
May 1, 1976