

SANTO J. SPARTA*HACKETTSTOWN

Funeral Services were held Wednesday for Santo J. Sparta of 200 Harvey St., who died Monday in Hackettstown Community Hospital.

Born in Italy, he was a son of the late Joseph and Grace Merlo Sparta. He was a resident of Phillipsburg most of his life, moving to Hackettstown nine years ago.

He retired in 1966 as a toolmaker in the Dixie Cup Company, Easton, Pa.

He was a member of St. Mary's Church of the Assumption, Hackettstown.

Surviving are his widow, the former Amelia Fatta; a daughter, Mrs. Grace Russo of Hackettstown; four brothers, Dr. Anthony J., Carl, John, and Leo, all of Easton, and three sisters, Mrs. Carmello Merlo and Mrs. Ciro Boscia, both of Easton and Mrs. Charles Musumeci, Cherry Hill, and three grandchildren.

Services were from the Scala Memorial Home, Hackettstown, to a Mass of Christian Burial in St. Mary's. Interment was in Pequest Union Cemetery.

From;
Star-Gazette, May 19, 1977.

Obituary,
Santo J. Sparta,
Date of Death, May 16, 1977.