

OBITUARY

Evelyn 'Eppie' J. Stackhouse

Evelyn "Eppie" J. Stackhouse, 65, of Hope, NJ, died Thursday, October 15, 2009 at the Hackettstown Regional Medical Center, Hackettstown, NJ.

Born: On October 1, 1944, in Brooklyn, NY, she was a daughter of the late Carl Binder and the late Loretta Croswell Binder.

Personal: Evelyn and her husband Charles were married for 38 years.

She formerly resided in Mansfield Township and for the past 32 years she lived in Hope, NJ. She retired in 2002 after 32 years from Greystone Psychiatric Hospital in Morris Plains, NJ, as a social worker.

She was a graduate of Centenary College, Hackettstown in 1965, and a graduate of Val Paraiso College, Indiana in 1967 with a B.A. Degree in History, M.S.W. Degree in Social Work from Rutgers University.

She was a Adjunt Professor in Social Work for New York University.

Eppie was best known for her passion and love for domestic and wild life animals and flowers.

Memberships: Gethsane Lutheran Church - Deaconess of the church, member of the Alter Guild, and the church choir, former Sunday school teacher and former Vacation Bible school teacher.

Survivors: Husband, Charles Stackhouse; brother, August Binder of Nazareth, PA; eight loving and caring nieces and nephews and their families.

She was predeceased by a sister Loretta Camporini.

Services: Services Will be at the Gethsane Lutheran Church on Monday, October 19, 2009 at 11 a.m., with the Pastor Terry Herzberg conducting the service. Interment at the Pequest Union Cemetery, Great Meadows, NJ. Friends may call on Sunday from 4 to 8 p.m. and Monday from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. at the Scala Memorial Home, 124 High Street, Hackettstown, NJ.

Memorials: In lieu of flowers, please make all donations to Gethsane Lutheran Church Memorial Fund, 409 East Baldwin Street, Hackettstown, NJ 07840.