

Louis Stangle

HACKETTSTOWN — Louis Stangle, Mountain Avenue, died Wednesday at home. He was 95.

Born in Bloomsbury, he lived in the Hackettstown area most of his life. Before retiring, Mr. Stangle was a self-employed maintenance man.

He was an Army veteran of World War I.

Surviving are a daughter, Doris

Ghatti, with whom he lived; two sisters, Mattie Morcroft, Middlesex, and Jennie Rice, Bangor, Pa.; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Arrangements are by Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St.

Daily Record
January 6, 1984

OBITUARY;
Louis Stangle
Date of Death,
January 4, 1984.