

Dr. Stanowicz, physician in Hackettstown 32 years

A Mass of Christian Burial for Dr. Steven J. Stanowicz, 64, Hackettstown physician, will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m. Saturday in St. Mary's Church of the Assumption, Hackettstown. Interment will be in Hackettstown Union Cemetery. The Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown, is in charge of arrangements.

Dr. Stanowicz, who died Wednesday in Hackettstown Community Hospital after a short illness, lived at 117 Grand Ave., Hackettstown, where he operated his office as a general practitioner since 1948.

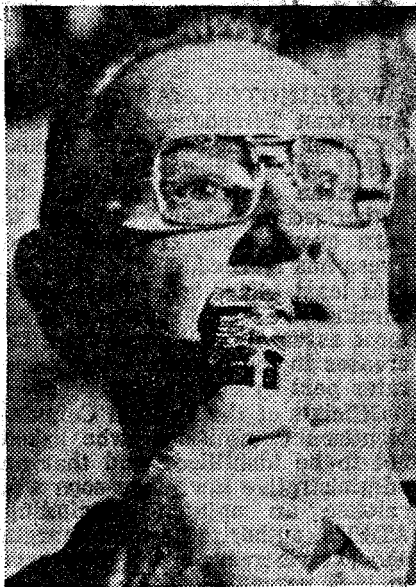

A 1934 graduate of Hackettstown High School, he was graduated in 1938 from Rutgers University, where he was valedictorian of his class. He was graduated from New York University Medical School in 1942, and received the Morris Freedman Memorial Prize for highest scholastic achievement that year.

An Army veteran of World War II, he served in the U.S. Army Medical Corps in the South Pacific.

Dr. Stanowicz was a member of the American Medical Association, the Warren County Medical Society, St. Mary's Church of the Assumption and Blue Ridge Post No. 164, American Legion, Hackettstown.

In 1978 he received the humanitarian award from the Greater Hackettstown Chamber of Commerce for service to the community.

Born March 5, 1916, in Jersey City,

Dr. Steven J. Stanowicz

N.J., he was a son of the late Stefan and Josephine Sulziski Zdanowicz. He lived in Hackettstown most of his life.

Surviving are his wife, the former Elizabeth Nyhuis; a son, Dr. Steven F. Stanowicz, Villa Park, Calif.; three daughters, Mrs. Sientje Smith, Hackettstown; Mrs. Mary Freeman, Wright, Wyo., and Miss Stasha Stanowicz, Orange, Calif.; a brother, Joseph of Garden Grove, Calif., and 10 grandchildren.

Express,
February 4, 1981.

OBITUARY:
Dr. Steven Stanowicz.
Date of Death,
~~February 3~~, 1981.