

EARLE A. STANTON

A Mass of the Resurrection was held Tuesday morning for Earle Aylward Stanton, 53, of Edina, Minn., formerly of Hackettstown, who died last Thursday, June 15, 1972, after a long illness with heart trouble. Interment was at the Lakeland Cemetery in Edina.

Born on March 22, 1918, in West Orange, Mr. Stanton was a son of the late Earle Abram and Margaret Dillon Stanton. He lived for several years in Hackettstown, where he was in the radio and photo finishing business with his brother-in-law, Stewart D. Williams, now deceased, and later with Lyman D. Gulick in the oil business. He had been associated with Mobil Oil Company in Minnesota for the past 25 years.

Surviving are his widow, the former Miss Mary O'Malley of Scranton, Pa.; two daughters, Mrs. Brian Bennett and Miss Marylynn Stanton, both of Edina; a brother, C. DeWitt Stanton of Goshen, N. Y.; two sisters, Mrs. Viola Williams of 317 Washington Street, Hackettstown, and Mrs. Edward W. Howes of Oakland, Calif.; and one grandson, Kevin Stanton Bennett of Edina.

Memorials may be sent to the heart and arthritis organizations.
